

AISHA FESOLA ONOLA

Founder's Associate | Startup Operations | Fundraising, Partnerships & GTM Support

Lagos, Nigeria | contact@aishaonola.me | aishaonola.me

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Operating generalist who takes ambiguous, high-stakes work from zero to done in fast-moving, remote startup environments. Over a year supporting founders and a GM across strategy, research, partnerships, hiring, and daily execution, while independently building and scaling a media company from the ground up. Comfortable working directly with senior stakeholders, building the systems and trackers a small team needs to move fast, and using AI tools as a force multiplier.

EXPERIENCE

Founder's Associate, HRA Systems (Remote) Nov 2025 – Present

- Own cross-functional workstreams spanning business operations and special initiatives end to end, tracking timelines, deliverables, dependencies, and action items with no standing playbook.
- Run market, competitor, vendor, event, and opportunity research, synthesizing findings into briefing notes, trackers, and recommendations that inform founder decision-making.
- Manage calendar coordination, stakeholder follow-ups, and working documents across multiple concurrent executive priorities, closing loops without being asked twice.
- Build operational documentation and internal knowledge systems in Notion and Trello; support recruitment, candidate coordination, and onboarding workflows for a growing team.

Founder & Editor, The OffScript (Remote) Jul 2026 – Present

- Founded and independently operate a digital media publication for young Nigerians, growing subscribers to 100+ within the first few weeks through direct outreach and partnerships.
- Own the full operating stack, including research, writing, editing, publishing, email distribution, website management, and audience analytics, with no team to hand work off to.
- Lead audience-growth and partnership initiatives across communities, events, and media contacts; use campaign data to guide distribution and channel decisions.
- Built and maintain a self-serve content archive and portfolio to support ongoing growth and outreach efforts.

Outsourcing Intern, Proten International (Hybrid) Jul 2025 – Oct 2025

- Supported recruitment, onboarding, employee communication, and workforce administration for outsourced staff using Zoho and SeamlessHR.
- Served as day-to-day point of contact for outsourced employees, resolving operational issues and keeping onboarding on track.
